SPACIOUS INNER SUBURBAN HOME!!

As you step inside this Queenslander style home, you will be surprised by the abundance of space. With a living & dining area catering to even the largest furniture suites, there is room for all the family. There is a huge front sun room, perfect for conversion to a home office, children's play room etc.

The main bedroom is suitable for a king sized bed & features high ceilings & tons of natural light. There are three other bedrooms to choose from, two which have been converted from the original second sun room.

At the rear of the property is a large family kitchen, with gas cooking & room for an eat in dining table. The kitchen opens to a back veranda with views of the Brisbane City skyline.

Under the house is currently being used as open storage space & the large back yard requires little maintenance as the owner will be mowing the yard for you! There is also off street parking for several vehicles.

This home is close by to the city, the cafes & restaurants of Park Road & is a short drive to Toowong & Indooroopilly shopping centers.

Price: $475 per week
