

Serenity Meets Sophistication At This Notable Urban Oasis

Welcome to 30a Dauphin Terrace, an opulent retreat located in the heart of Highgate Hill. Spanning three levels, this luxurious residence designed and built by a renowned award winning Osterfield & Johnson expertly blends modern design with natural surroundings.

Boasting four bedrooms, two and a half bathrooms and two car parks, revel in 405 sqm of utter tranquillity. Step inside the design-focused sanctuary where tiled floors, high-raked ceilings and ceiling fans create an impressive ambience.

The kitchen, featuring stainless steel appliances, electric cooktops, ample storage and a dark benchtop, overlooks the expansive living room. A study area adds a touch of sophistication whilst a private balcony on all three levels ensures excellent ventilation and a seamless connection to the outdoors. It's on these balconies where you'll experience the epitome of peace as you take in the panoramic views of hinterlands-like greenery which evoke a sense of living in a treehouse. Encapsulating a holiday-like escape in a remarkably convenient inner-city location, don't miss out on this fabulous residence where every detail has been meticulously curated for a life of comfort.
